Open Sky Group's Advisory Services is committed to supporting you with the best available operational insights and technology solutions offering:

- Operational and Technology Assessments
- KPI and Reporting Assessments
- Solution Evaluations
- Business Case Development
- Change Management
- Program Management
- Vendor Selections

What are the benefits of Advisory Services?

Open Sky Group's Advisory Services keep your investments producing the results you seek by focusing on three key areas.

ENHANCED THROUGHPUT

- Evaluating material flow through people, processes, and platforms to reduce waste
- Minimizing inefficient and transient labor to reduce training and turnover costs
- Leveraging advances in automation and robotics to achieve consistent productivity levels

IMPROVED MARGINS

- Understanding your operations in real-time by recommending and developing improved KPIs
- Refining processes to accommodate changing industry and end-customer expectations

COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGE

- Creating a roadmap so you know where you need to invest to outperform your competition
- Embracing end-customer expectations to make your business the preferred provider
- Securing industry-leading profit margins by leveraging process improvement and technology
